A total of 24 boats started their journey towards the Greek Aegean Islands, carrying 696 people. Of these, 13 boats were stopped/pushed back, while 308 people were registered on the Greek islands. So far this year, 514 boats carrying 11.911 people have been picked up by the Turkish Coast Guard and police. In the same period, 7.360 people have been registered as arriving on the Greek islands on 267 boats. These numbers should have been significantly higher if not for pushbacks carried out by the Hellenic Coast Guard.

People Arrived on Aegean islands

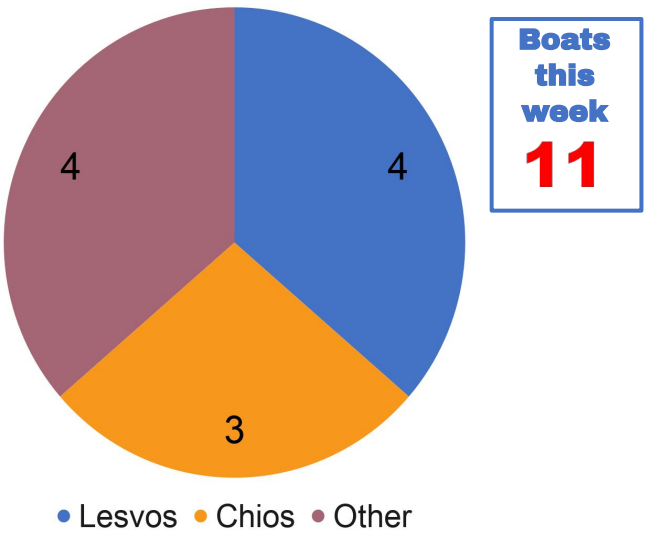

Arrivals have increased 136.9% compared to last week. The number of registered boats arriving on the islands is up from 5 boats last week to 11 this week. The total number of boats departing is up from 19 boats last week to 24 boats this week.

Transfers to Mainland

Transfers to the mainland decreased 34.7% compared to last week. The official island population is 7.142 people, up by 1,316 over the last 30 days. This increase reflects transfers from Crete to the Aegean islands, alongside arrivals from Türkiye. Transfers to the mainland remain essential to reduce pressure on reception facilities. If arrivals and transfers from Crete exceed departures to the mainland, the island population will increase further.
